Italian Adult Classes - FALL 2007

BENVENUTI!! WELCOME! Our language program is characterized by communication in a fun and relaxed environment and students' active participation. We will help you learn Italian through classes that build both spoken and written fluency.

ITALIAN LANGUAGE CLASSES

Italian for Travelers

This popular and lively course of Italian starts you in the right direction with phrases hotels, restaurants, shops, cafes, museums. These basic conversational skills will greatly enhance your Italian experience. No prior knowledge of Italian required.

Italiano 1 - for absolute beginners

Goal: to give students basic tools needed to understand and communicate. At the end of the class students should be able to: greet, introduce themselves; ask for information; order food and drinks; talk about themselves and others; describe people, things, and places; talk about leisure time, express likes and dislikes. Grammar: subject pronouns, present tense, definite and indefinite articles, gender and number of nouns, numbers 0-100+, formal and informal communication, simple prepositions, piacere, interrogative. (Italian Espresso 1, Chap 1– 4)

Italiano 2 - for students with basic knowledge of Italian

Goal: to build on italiano 1 and give students stronger and wider skills needed to understand, speak and write. Songs will be used as additional material. At the end of the class students should be able to ask for and give directions, ask and tell time, plan a trip, describe one's habits and daily life, and talk about holidays and traditions, and family. Grammar: Adjectives, c'è/ci sono, present tense, past tense, ci vuole/ci vogliono, reflexive verbs, possessive adjectives (Italian Espresso 1, Chap 5–9)

Italiano 3 - for students with a fairly good command of Italian

Goal: to build on italiano 2 and give students the structures necessary to make polite requests, express tastes and preferences, describe people and experience from past, make comparisons, express wishes. At the end of this class students should be able to communicate in a shopping environment, talk about their childhood, describe and compare people and things, make social arrangements. Grammar: reinforcement and practice of all tenses of the indicative mood, including imperfect and past perfect, direct and indirect object pronouns, conditional, comparative and superlatives, present progressive (Italian Espresso 1, Chap 10– 14)

Italiano 4 – for students with a good command of the language

Goal: to build on Italiano 3 and give students stronger and wider language skills needed to interact at a high level of complexity. At the end of the class students should be able to talk extensively about past events and future projects, make hypothesis, give and ask for advice, give instructions, make comparisons. Grammar: past tense and imperfect, direct, indirect, and reflexive pronouns, future tense, imperative formal and informal, double pronouns, comparative and superlative adjectives. (Italian Espresso 2, Chap 1– 4)

Italiano 5 - – for student with a strong command of the language

Goal: to build on Italiano 4 and give students stronger and wider language skills to be able to interact at a high level of complexity. At the end of the class students should be able to ask and give information, describe a city, express complaints, regrets, personal opinions, debate, judge and talk about goals Grammar: relative and indefinite pronouns, past conditional, remote past, subjunctive, passive form (Italian Espresso 2, Chap 5– 9)

Beginner and Intermediate Conversation

Italian culture - art, cuisine, cinema, lifestyles, music, fashion, etc– is the starting point for conversations and discussions that will help students to both enrich their knowledge of Italy and build a larger vocabulary. Class includes practical usage and review of grammar previously studied. Beg Conv requires Ita 2+ (or equivalent). Int. Conv requires Ita 3+ (or equivalent). (Italian Grammar in Practice for grammar review)

Advanced Conversation & Grammar Review

Students will be engaged in many conversations and discussions on topics prompted by materials they will read, view, and listen. The class also includes writing exercises and practical usage and review of grammar previously studied. Requires Italian 5+ (or equivalent) (Italian Grammar in Practice for grammar review)
