"My whole life I had dreamed about becoming a world champion bull rider, mainly because that was all I had in life. However, when I look back, I had something much greater than a gold buckle, but I didn't even recognize it. It was my Heavenly Father and His love for me, even when I was not totally committed to Him. I sensed Him watching over me and somehow I knew He desired me to draw near to Him. I eventually gained the strength needed to separate myself from a life of compromise and defeat by simply dropping to my knees and giving the Lord my very soul (even my gear bag). If you are dreaming that same dream, then this exciting and powerful League is for you! I would be honored to help you in recognizing your unique God-given purpose." ~ Scott Mendes
