

Forum for Volunteer Administrators

2008 Annual Meeting

November 6, 2008
12 noon – 1:15 pm
City Club of Cleveland

1

Mission

To provide mutual support, continuing dialogue and professional development opportunities for those involved in the leadership and management of volunteers.

2

Vision Statement

FVA will be recognized within the region as an organization which utilizes its membership in a collaborative approach through its role as

- An Educator
- A Community Convener for Volunteer Managers.

3

2008 Officers

Cristen Kane
President

Rebecca Carlino
Vice President

Heather Triplett
Treasurer

Mary Ann Thomas
Secretary

4

2008 Board of Trustees

Tami Bolder
Donna Brant
Rebecca Carlino
Harry Hunter III
Barbara Nalette

Frances Post
Mary Reynolds Powell
Sophie Romack
Lori Sebulski
Linda Smith

5

2008 Committee Chairs

Sara Thorne-Briechle
Professional Development

Elizabeth Koniecko Ransom
Volunteer Administrator of the Year

Marge Gala
Certificate Program

Carol Polivchak
Colleague Connection

6

2008 Committee Chairs

Lori Sebulski
Membership

Heather Triplett
Finance

Rebecca Carlino
Governance

Holly Grady
Communications

7

2008 Achievements

Professional Development Programs

Find Your Network

Presented by Nancy King Smith

Corporate Citizenship: A Business Perspective

Presented by David Cowan of the Lubrizol Corporation

Beyond the Soft Data

*Presented by Lisa Gallagher, RN, BSN
Wendy Matthews*

Foundations in Volunteer Administration

8

2008 Achievements

Membership

- Significant Growth in Organizational Memberships
- Increased Membership Recruitment
- Increased Regional Reach

2008 Achievements

Governance

- Community Visioning Session
- Completed Strategic Planning 2008-2011
- Excellent Board Retention Rate
- Committee Development – Increased Non-Board Members

2008 Achievements

Finance Committee

- Audit Review
- Improved Financial Reports
- Established Reserve Account

2008 Achievements

Communications

- New Newsletter Format
- Updated Website
- Improved E-Blast Communications

Future of FVA

FVA is only as good as the membership involvement - Consider joining a committee and becoming active in FVA's future direction.

- Share information about FVA with colleagues!
- Participate in FVA Professional Development Programs and FVA Certificate Program.

13

2008 Partners - Sponsors

Cleveland Metroparks Zoo
Lubrizol Corporation
Boys & Girls Club of Cleveland
Cleveland Museum of Natural History
Cleveland State University
John Carroll University
Adult Guardian Services
Ogden-Post Consulting
University Hospitals Case Medical Center

14

2008 FVA Board Slate

Renewing for a 2nd Term

Donna Brant
Rebecca Carlino
Cristen Kane
Heather Triplett

15

2008 FVA Board Slate

New Board Members

Elizabeth Hass- Hill
Gilbert & Mayor

Jeanette Savage
Cleveland Botanical Garden

16

2009 FVA Board Slate

Continuing Term Members

Marilyn Hahn

Harry Hunter III

Barbara Nalette

Frances Post

Mary Reynolds Powell

Sophie Romack

Linda Smith

Mary Ann Thomas

17

2008 FVA Board Slate

Retiring

Tami Bolder

Lori Sebulski

18

2008 Volunteer Administrator of the Year

Heather Triplett

Manager of Volunteer Services
Cleveland Metroparks

Congratulations!

19

Keynote Address

The Secret of Storytelling

*Denise San Antonio Zeman,
President & CEO
St. Luke's Foundation*

20

Contact Us

Downloadable membership brochure and program registration forms can be found on our website:

www.fvaohio.org

Cristen Kane, President

Cristen.Kane@WESchools.org

440.269.3015

